ALLAH v AKBAR. In August 2001
I was stop over by Patrol Police in Norman Oklahoma after crossing a yellow line, a red traffic light and doing 40 when speed was 25.

My car ~~was~~^{is} not registered at my name and therefore had plate belonging to ~~was~~ the previous owner (who declared it sold in begin March.) ~~was~~

After checking my British driving licence (how they did that?) they did not impede the car which had plate of the previous owner. At this point they had no mean to know to who belong the car how it was not registered they advise me not to observe carelessly but they did not issue me a ticket for 3 serious road offence and for driving a car who is not registered at my name for more 6 months.

I am sure that the Norman Patrol must have receive information instruction by the Nation Computer Centre or otherwise not to stop, arrest impede Zakariya Mawdudi.

ALATTAS and Mukaram were witnesses of this incident as well as many muslim attending the Early prayer-Fajr.

Slave of ALLAH.
